(iii) subject to such conditions as ¹[the ²[State] Government] may impose and with the consent of the panchayat concerned, perform such other administrative duties including the distribution of irrigation water as may be assigned to it by ¹[the ²[State] Government] by notification in the ³[Official Gazette], after consultation with the district local board.

* * * * *

(3) A panchayat shall not be bound ⁵* * * * * to perform the duties specified in clause (ii) of sub-section (1) unless sufficient funds have been placed at the disposal of the panchayat by the district local board.

⁶[28A. (1) A panchayat may, from time to time, concur with any other panchayat or with any municipality, district local board or cantonment authority or committee appointed for a notified area or with more than one such panchayat, municipality, district local board, authority or committee—

Joint Committees of two or more local bodies.

(a) in appointing out of their respective bodies a joint committee for any purpose in which they are jointly interested and in appointing a chairman of such committee ;

(b) in delegating to any such committee power to frame terms binding on each such body as to the construction and future maintenance of any joint work and any power which might be exercised by either or any of such bodies ; and

(c) in framing and modifying rules for regulating the proceedings of any such committee and the conduct of correspondence, relating to the purpose for which the committee is appointed.

(2) A panchayat may from time to time enter, subject to the sanction of the ²[State] Government, into an agreement with any other panchayat, or with any municipality, district local board, cantonment authority or committee appointed for a notified area or with a combination of any such bodies, for the levy of octroi duty whereby the octroi duties respectively leviable by the bodies so contracting may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the area subject to the control of the said bodies.

(3) Where a panchayat has requested the concurrence of any other local authority under the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2) in respect of any matter and such other local authority has refused to concur, the Commissioner may pass such orders as he may deem fit requiring the concurrence of such other local authority, not being a cantonment authority, in the matter aforesaid and such other local authority shall comply with such orders.

(4) If any difference of opinion arises between local bodies acting under this section, the decision thereupon of the ²[State] Government or of such officer as it appoints in this behalf shall be final :

Provided that, where one of the local bodies is a cantonment authority, the decision of the ¹[State] Government, or of the officer, shall be subject to the concurrence of the Central Government.]

Government may vest certain lands in panchayat. ²[28B. For the purposes of this Chapter, the ¹[State] Government may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may think fit to impose, vest in a panchayat open sites, waste, vacant or grazing lands or public roads and streets, wells, river-beds, tanks, trees or any other property in the village vesting in the ³[Government].]

Obstructions and encroachments upon public streets and open sites. ⁴[28C. (1) Whoever within the limits of the village, (a) shall have built or set up, or shall build or set up, any wall, or any fence, rail, post, stall, verandah, platform, plinth, step or any projecting structure or thing, or other encroachment or obstruction, or

(b) shall deposit or cause to be placed or deposited any box, bale, package or merchandise, or any other thing, in any public street or place or in or over or upon any open drain, gutter, sewer or aqueduct in such street or place shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees and with further fine which may extend to one rupee, for every day on which such projection, encroachment, obstruction or deposit continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(2) The panchayat shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and shall have the like power to remove any unauthorised obstruction or encroachment of the like nature in any open site not being private property, whether such site is vested in the panchayat or not, provided that if the site be vested in Government the permission of the Collector or any officer authorised by him in this behalf shall have first been obtained, the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter IX.

(3) Whoever, not being duly authorised in that behalf, removes earth, sand or other material from, or makes any encroachment in or upon any open site which is not private property shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to forty rupees, and, in the case of an encroachment, with further fine which may extend to two rupees for every day on which the encroachment continues after the date of first conviction.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the panchayat from allowing any temporary occupation of or erection in any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or the piling of fuel in by-streets and sites for not more than four days, and in such manner as not to inconvenience the public or any individual.]

CHAPTER IV.

INCORPORATION OF VILLAGE PANCHAYAT ; ITS PROPERTY AND FUND.

29. Every panchayat shall be a body corporate by the name of "the village panchayat of _____," and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name, and shall be competent to acquire and hold property, both moveable and immovable whether within or without the limits of the village over which it has authority, to lease, sell or otherwise transfer moveable or immovable property which may become vested in or be acquired by it, and to contract and do all other things necessary for the purposes of this Act :

Provided that no lease of immovable property (other than property referred to in sub-section (1) of section 30) for a term exceeding ¹[three] years and no sale or other transfer of any such property shall be valid unless such lease, sale or other transfer shall have been made with the previous sanction of the Collector.

30. (1) It shall be competent to a local board from time to time to direct that any property vesting in such local board shall vest in panchayat ²[and on such direction being issued, the property shall vest in the panchayat notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or the Indian Registration Act, 1908] :

³[Provided that no lease, sale or other transfer of any such immovable property by the panchayat shall be valid without the previous sanction of the Commissioner and of such local board.]

(2) Every work constructed by a panchayat out of the village fund shall vest in such panchayat.

31. (1) There shall be in each village a fund, which shall be called the village fund.

(2) The following shall form part of, or be paid into, the village fund, namely :—

(a) the amount which may be allotted to the village fund by ⁴[the ⁵[State] Government] under the provisions of section 191 of the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901 ;

(b) the proceeds of any tax or fee imposed under section 89 ;

(c) all ⁶* * * sums ordered to be paid as compensation realised under sections 45 and 46 ;

CHAPTER VII.

PROCEDURE OF PANCHAYATS IN SUITS AND CASES.

59. Any person who wishes to institute a suit or case under this Act before a ²[nyaya panchayat] shall make an application orally or in writing to the Chairman or during his absence from the village to such other member of the ²[nyaya panchayat] as the Chairman may appoint in this behalf and shall at the same time pay the prescribed fees. Suits and cases; how instituted.

⁵[Provided that an Administrative Officer appointed under the Bombay Primary Education Act, 1947, or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf wishing to institute a case of the nature specified in clause (f) of section 41 may send such application by registered post.] Bom. LXI of 1947.

60. The substance of the application shall be recorded without delay in the prescribed register ⁶[and, except where an application has been sent by registered post, the signature or thumb impression of the applicant] shall be taken on the register and the register shall be signed by the Chairman or, in his absence, by any member authorised under section 59. Substance of application to be recorded.

61. Every suit or case instituted in accordance with the provisions of section 59 shall be brought before the ²[nyaya panchayat] at its next sitting and the plaintiff or complainant, as the case may be, shall, at the time of making the application, be informed of the time and place fixed for such sitting and directed to attend at that time and place. Plaintiff or complainant to attend next sitting of ²[nyaya panchayat].

62. The ²[nyaya panchayat] after hearing the application, shall cause a written summons in the prescribed form to be served on the defendant or accused, as the case may be, requiring him to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place as may be stated in the summons and shall, at the same time, direct the plaintiff or complainant to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place : Summons to be issued to defendant or accused.

Provided that the ²[nyaya panchayat] may, for reasons to be recorded, after hearing the application and examining the plaintiff or complainant, refuse to issue a summons and dismiss the suit or complaint.

63. Such summons shall ordinarily be caused to be served by the patel or village headman: Where there are two patels in a village, one of whom is a revenue patel and the other a police patel, the summons shall ordinarily be served by the revenue patel if it relates to a suit and by police patel if it relates to a case : Summons served by whom.

Provided, however, that a ²[nyaya panchayat] may cause the summons to be served through any other person.

³ The words "or a nyaya panchayat newly constituted on the dissolution of another nyaya panchayat under section 106", were deleted by Bom. 14 of 1952, s. 3.

⁴ The words "or at the date of such dissolution" were deleted, ibid.

⁵ This proviso was added by Bom. 67 of 1954, s. 9.

⁶ This portion was substituted for the words "and the signature or thumb impression of the applicant" ibid., s. 10.

Mode of
summons.

64. The summons shall be in duplicate, signed by the presiding member of the ¹[nyaya panchayat] and shall, as far as possible, be served personally on the defendant or accused, as the case may be, whose signature or thumb-impression shall be taken in token of service. If the defendant or accused cannot be found and the ¹[nyaya panchayat] is satisfied that he is evading service or if he refuses to take the summons, the ¹[nyaya panchayat] may order service to be made on an adult male member of his family residing with him, or by affixing a copy thereof upon some conspicuous part of the house in which he ordinarily resides.

village.

65. If a defendant or accused is, at the time of the issue of the summons, outside the village of the panchayat, the summons may be forwarded by the ¹[nyaya panchayat] to the Collector or to any officer not below the rank of a mamlatdar, who may be authorised by the Collector in this behalf, and the Collector or such officer shall cause the summons to be served as if it were summons from his own court.

Exemption of certain persons from appearance
in suits.

66. (1) Women who, according to the customs and manners of the country ought not to be compelled to appear in public, shall be exempt from personal appearance before a ¹[nyaya panchayat] in any suit.

(2) Persons exempted from personal appearance in any court under section 133 V of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall also be exempt from personal appearance before a ¹[nyaya panchayat] in any suit.

Issue of
witnesses.

67. (1) A ¹[nyaya panchayat] may, if it considers the evidence of, or the production of a document by any person necessary in a suit or case, issue a summons to such person to compel him to attend or to produce or cause the production of such document, and such person shall be bound to comply with the directions contained in the summons. Such summons shall be in the form and served in the manner as hereinbefore provided.

(2) A ¹[nyaya panchayat] may refuse to summon a witness or to enforce a summons already issued against a witness where, in its opinion, the attendance of the witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which in the circumstances, would be unreasonable.

(3) No ¹[nyaya panchayat] shall enforce the attendance of any person living outside the village to give evidence, or to produce a document, unless such sum of money is deposited with the ¹[nyaya panchayat] as appears to the ¹[nyaya panchayat] to be sufficient to defray his reasonable expenses and if in the opinion of the Collector or officer empowered under section 65, as the case may be, the attendance of any such person is not necessary for the proper adjudication of the suit or case, such Collector or officer shall return the summons to the ¹[nyaya panchayat] with his endorsement accordingly.

(4) No ¹[nyaya panchayat] shall compel any person to give evidence or to disclose any communication which such person cannot be permitted to give or compelled to disclose under the provisions of the ²Indian Evidence Act, 1872, or I of 1872, under any other law for the time being in force.

Pleaders, etc.
from appearance.

68. No pleader, vakil, or mukhtyar, and no advocate or attorney of a High Court, shall be permitted to appear on behalf of any party to any suit or case before a ¹[nyaya panchayat] 3* * *
